Getting to and from Airports

San Francisco International Airport (SFO) [2 ways to get to hotel]:

1. Hotel Courtesy Shuttle from the Westin (recommended)

- Runs 24 hours a day, every 20 minutes or so
- On the Departure level, on the center island with other hotel shuttles
- No need to call the hotel – the shuttle shows up automatically

or

2. Take BART from the SFO terminal:

- Transfer at San Bruno (the next stop) to a Southbound Millbrae train
- Walk East along Millbrae Avenue (over the Highway 101 overpass) to hotel

Oakland International Airport (OAK):

1. Take the AirBART shuttle bus to the nearby Coliseum BART station.
 - AirBART shuttle buses run every 10 minutes.
 - AirBART shuttle stop is at the 3rd curb in front of terminals 1 and 2
 - Fare is $3 exact change in cash or a BART ticket with exactly $3 on it.
 - AirBART fare box will not return a BART ticket, even if there's money left.
2. Buy your BART ticket from the ticket machine at the station.
3. Take the escalator up to the Westbound platform.
4. Pick one:
 - A) Take the Dublin/Pleasanton–Millbrae line to the Millbrae BART station.
Walk East along Millbrae Avenue (over the Highway 101 overpass) to hotel
 - B) Take any Westbound train
 - Transfer at Balboa Park to a Southbound Pittsburg/Bay Point–SFO train.
 - Get off at SFO and take the hotel's courtesy shuttle to the hotel.

Getting to Stores

BART

- Millbrae BART station is about ½ mile from hotel
- From hotel, walk West on Millbrae Avenue across Highway 101. The BART station will be on your right.
- To get to the Tanforan shopping center (anchored by Target, Sears, and JC Penney), take any Northbound train to the San Bruno station (next to the shopping center).
- Be prepared with bills and coins to buy your ticket from the machine. A test we did showed a one-way fare of $2.55 to get from Millbrae to San Bruno.
- Fare queries showed $6.05 fare from OAK to SFO, and $4.65 OAK to Millbrae.
